

Everything on this site has been provided to you for FREE! My 20+ years in Nashville have afforded me the opportunity to learn from some of the greatest teachers in the music business. I am now offering my knowledge and expertise to artists and labels interested in furthering themselves within the music industry.

I charge $150 an hour for consulting services, plus any travel, meals, or hard expenses associated with your specific project.

If you require more than 25 hours a month, we can work out a retainer rate that is affordable to your budget.
